*This book is dedicated to my memories of three of my mentors, Louis V. Baldwin Jr., Dwain Erwin, and Davie Ellis.
And to the students of UNT Dallas College of Law, who have mentored me
as much as I may have mentored them.*

For over two decades, Maslanka's Field Guide to Texas Employment Law: FMLA, FLSA, ADA, Texas Labor Code has been the exhaustive and trusted source for lawyers and human resources professionals. It is the only reference guide that has extensive case annotations and commentary on the knotty employment law issues practitioners face daily. In the Field Guide, Maslanka brings to bear his expertise and experience to help you provide actionable, timely, and practical counsel.

Michael P. Maslanka has actively practiced employment law in Texas since 1981 and is an Assistant Professor of Law at UNT Dallas. In addition to the Field Guide, Maslanka has co-authored and contributed to multiple books and news products related to employment law and litigation, in particular depositions. He has instructed at the National Institute for Trial Advocacy (NITA) since 2010, speaks across the state of Texas at Continuing Legal Education programs, and is frequently quoted and interviewed by the media on current employment law topics.
